"Old Mr-s. Witch, Old Mr-s. Witch,

1. Tell me how you fly.
2. Tell me what you see.
3. Tell me what you do.

Tell me how you fly." "I fly on my broom - stick up__ in the sky."
 Tell me what you see." "I see-a lit-tle Jack-o Lan-tern look-ing at__ me."
 Tell me what you do." "I'm nib-bling at my pump-kin pie & I'll__ scare__ you Boo!"

Tell me what you eat?

Tell me how you sleep?

Tell me where you stay?

1. Make up a new question to ask the witch in this song.
Before you write it down, try singing it. Does it fit the music?
If it doesn't fit the music --either change it a bit, or try a new question.

old Mrs. Witch, old Mrs. Witch Tell me _____

2. Brainstorm rhyming words to the last word in your question.

sleep ---deep, weep, steep stay ---play, away, hay eat ---meat, seat, wheat

_____ my last word

_____ my rhyming words

3. Now think of an answer that ends in one of your rhyming words.
before you write it down, try singing it to make sure it fits the music.

Add a little drama to this question-answer song by ...

- * making the witch's voice witchy * add some sound effects in the background
- *choose a different "witch" to answer each question
- *divide into two groups and face each other when singing question askers witches

When a witch lands
 where does she park?
