Verse 1: The grand old Duke of York____, he had ten thousand men____, he marched 'em up to the top of the hill and marched'em down a-gain____, And when they're up they're up____, and when they're down they're down____, and when they're on - ly half way up they're nei-ther up nor down____.

Verse 2: He drummed them up ...

Verse 3: He piped them up ...

Verse 4: He waved the flag to the top of the hill, and waved it down again.

This Duke of York was probably the second son of King George III (1738-1820). The Duke of York was in a war with Napoleon.

One of the battles was on a hill. The Duke of York took the hill with his men, then had to retreat down the hill. He climbed it to take it again. And again he had to retreat down the hill. Up and down the hill is what many people remembered about this Duke of York.

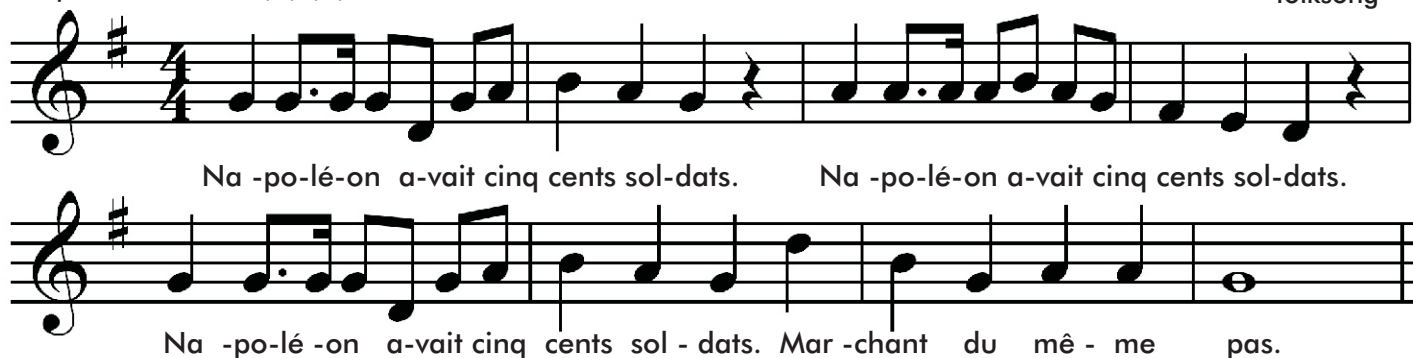

Do you think he liked being remembered this way?
